Teacher/ Supervisor Information PackWelcome to the Balmoral School Trail

Welcome to the 2024 Balmoral Show School Trails. This year, the trail is bigger than ever, designed to give your students a trip they won't forget. Various exhibitors such as NI Good Food, Dale Farm Ltd and lots more will be at the show and will devote time to all students, explaining what they do with a few free samples to enjoy along the way.

We hope that through attending the Balmoral Show, children will gain a better understanding about food and agriculture in Northern Ireland as well as having an exciting day out.

A free guide service provided by Brilliant Trails will be offered to all primary school and special need groups on a first come first served basis to help them gain the most from their Show visit. This interactive guided tour will last approximately 1 hour.

The School rates provide excellent value for money and getting to the show is easy with a coach drop-off and parking on site. We aim to make this school trip as stress-free as possible for everyone.

The Schools Trail initiative is filled to the brim with fun and educational things to see and do. New stops have been added to the trail and exciting new attractions to the show.

To add to this educational field trip, a booklet "What About farming" is available to download from the Schools Zone page of the website.

SAFETY INFORMATION

Safety Advice to Teachers

The following information has been taken from the HSENI information sheet (No.1/11) and should be read before your visit to the Balmoral Show.

Advice to teacher and other who organise visits for children

As with many other educational or recreational activities, visits can never be considered free from all risk. However, while the hazards are real, the risk of infection in children can be readily controlled by simple everyday measures.

The following practical steps will make your visit even more safe, healthy and enjoyable.

Before you visit, you should;

Explain the rules for the visit, stressing that they must not eat, drink or chew anything (including sweets) outside the areas in which you permit them to do so.

Explain why they must wash their hands thoroughly after contact with the animals, and before eating or drinking anything.

Check that cuts, grazes etc on children's hands are covered with a waterproof dressing.

During and after your visit, make sure that the children:

Teachers are reminded of the rules and precautions to take upon arrival at the site.

Do not kiss any animals.

Always wash their hands thoroughly before and after eating, after any contact with animals and again before leaving the site.

Eat only food that they have brought with them, or food for human consumption they have brought on the premises, in the designated areas, and never eat food which has fallen on the ground, or taste any animals foods.

Do not suck fingers or put hands, pencils, pens or crayons etc in mouths.

Wash their hands after changing their footwear.

Check that the children stay in their allocated groups during the visit, and that they;

Do not use or pick up any tools (eg, Spades and forks) or touch other work equipment unless permitted to do so by site staff.

Do not climb on to walls, fences, gates or animal pens etc.

Approach and handle animals quietly and gently.

Do not chase, frighten or torment the animals.

Do not wander off into unsupervised or prohibited areas eg. manure heaps.

Remember

The children are your responsibility during the visit.

You should supervise them during the visit, especially during hand washing to make sure that each child washes thoroughly. Site staff may be able to help with this supervision.

Allow plenty of time between eating or leaving so that the children do not have to rush.
